RACE INFORMATION

The start/finish line will be at Blackwater Draw Brewery in downtown Bryan at 701 North Main Street.

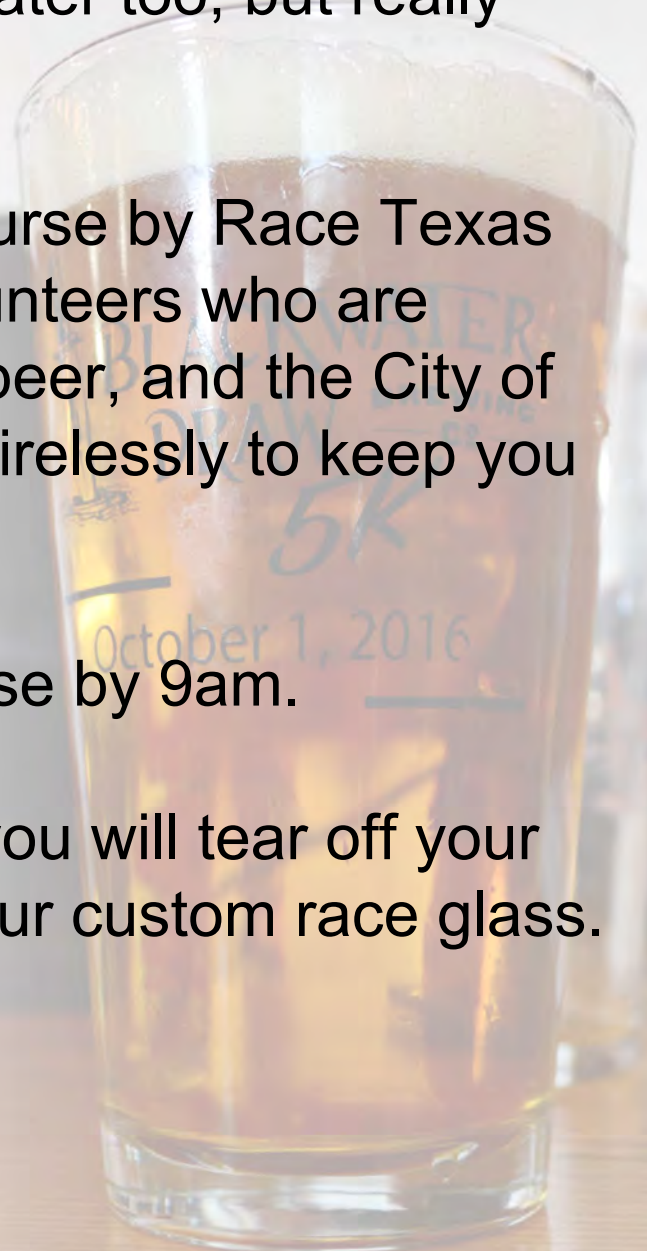

The race will begin at 8am on October 14th.

This is a two-loop course with a beer station at the turnaround spot (there will be water too, but really there's water in beer so...)

You will be helped along the course by Race Texas directional signs, dedicated volunteers who are working hard to earn their own beer, and the City of Bryan police officers who work tirelessly to keep you safe.

All runners must be off the course by 9am.

Once you cross the finish line, you will tear off your "glass" tab on your bib to get your custom race glass.

RACE INFORMATION

From that point, you will have the chance to walk through the brewery and see where all the magic happens and the pot-of-gold at the end of this trek is the bar where you will turn in your “beer” tab to fill up that brand, spankin’ new pint glass with a beer of your choice.

Your beer choices this year will be the following:
COMING SOON!

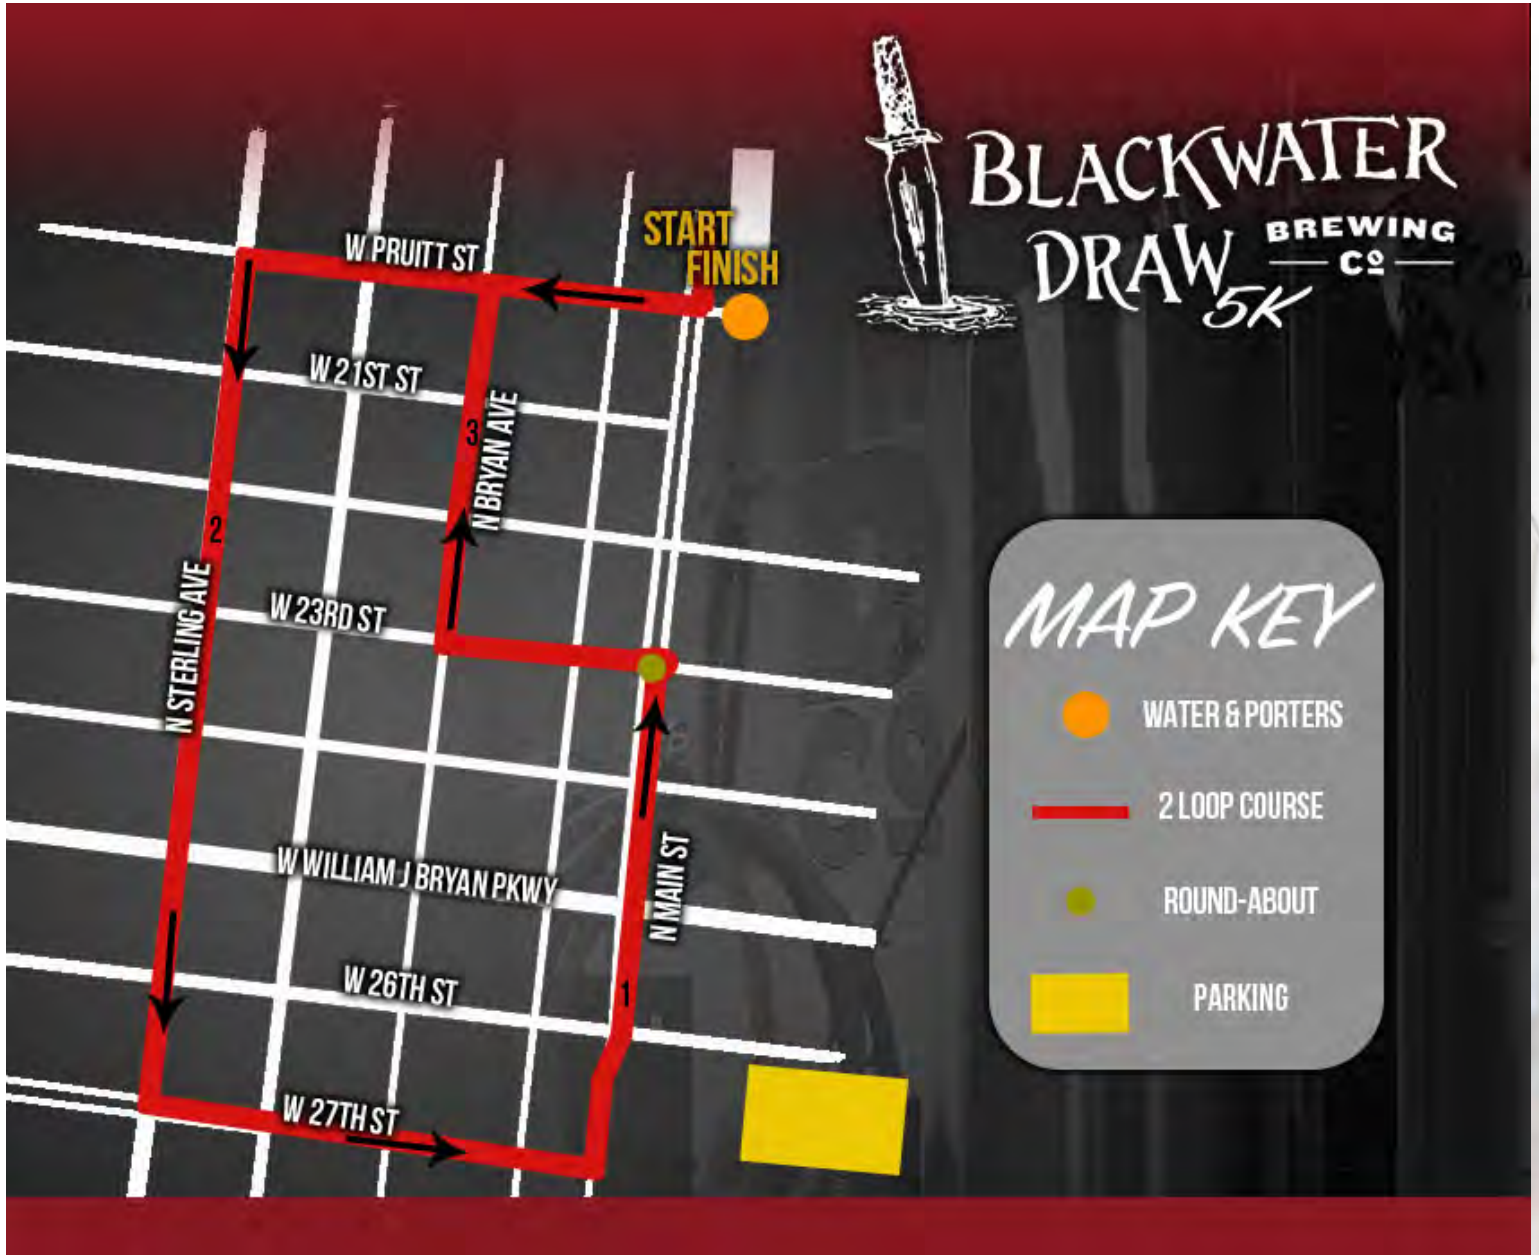

After you have your beer in hand, stop by the food tent to pick up a bag of pretzels or kettle corn, chill out for a bit, and listen to the great tunes of the Brice Woolard Band!
